Celebrating Czech Heritage

The Kolache Festival is a celebration of the revitalization of Czech heritage...a county that was basically a Czech settlement realized their precious identity was slipping away. New generations knew not the language, the music or the art of their ancestors. Not only do we grasp at the past, but we hurry to share the history...to bring into today's focus the beauty, talent and delight of the Czech people.

Come to the Kolache Festival and learn the wonderful Czech philosophy. See the technique of the stenciling, basket weaving, quilting, woodcraft, carving, sculpturing. Dance to the Polka, sing the songs of the musician. Taste the true ethnic food and lend your soul to the fulfillment of the Czech cultural heritage.

STATE OF TEXAS KOLACHE BAKE SHOW

Kolache, the original Czech wedding pastry, is a favorite national dessert throughout Czechoslovakia. The art of baking Kolaches came with the early immigrants to Burleson County. Bakers have competed for 32 years to win the coveted title of Grand Champion Kolache Baker of Burleson County. Over the years, the bake show has grown to six divisions. It is open to adult and youth nonprofessional professional and champion bakers. (See Bake Show Guidelines and Entry Form.)

WELCOME TO CALDWELL THE KOLACHE CAPITAL OF TEXAS

2016 State of Texas

KOLACHE BAKE SHOW

First United Methodist Church
306 W. Fox Street; Caldwell, Texas

- A. The Kolache Bake Show is open to adult and youth non-professional and professional bakers. Youth ages 9 through 19 as of January 1, 2016, may enter the Youth Divisions. Professionals are those individuals who have owned or been employed by a bakery and/or those who have received more than $1000 in gross sales from sale of baked goods from their home or any other means. Once entered as professional, then always a professional. All others are considered non-professional.
- B. All Burleson County non-professionals may enter in Burleson County or State Division. They may enter in only one division in any given year. This applies to both youth and adult non-professionals.
- C. An entry consist of 6 average size Kolaches of the same filling. These will be transferred by the committee to a plain disposable plate. The 11 classes are: Apple, Apricot, Cheese, Cheese Combination, Peach, Poppyseed, Prune, Sausage, Other Fruit, Other Meat, and Other. (Tea Rings, Strudels, or any other form of baked goods are not accepted). Participants may enter only 5 classes, one entry per class.
- D. Kolache entries must be made by one person, no team entries.
- E. Registration will be from 7:45 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. on September 10.
- F. Judging will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m.
- G. All Kolaches will be sold to cover the cost of the event. Extra donated Kolaches will be accepted and appreciated to help defray the cost of the Bake Show.
- H. Grand Champions, Reserve Champions, and first place winners will be announced in the Festival awards ceremony at 3:30 p.m. at the South Stage (corner of Buck and Echols).
- I. Ribbons awarded for all entries will be given to participants immediately after awards ceremony.
- J. Decisions of the Kolache Bake Show Committee are final.
- K. All Grand Champion winners of the 2015 Kolache Bake Show are not eligible to compete in 2016. They may compete in 2017. The Grand Champions of 2015 are invited to judge in the 2016 Kolache Bake Show.
